BAGHDAD WITHOUT A MAP: AND OTHER MISADVENTURES IN ARABIA (PAPERBACK)

Penguin Putnam Inc, United States, 1992. Paperback. Condition: New. Reprint. Language: English . Brand New Book. A very funny and frequently insightful look at the world's most combustible region. --The New York Times Book Review NATIONAL BESTSELLER With razor-sharp wit and insight, intrepid journalist Tony Horwitz gets beyond solemn newspaper headlines and romantic myths of Arabia to offer startling close-ups of a volatile region few Westerners understand. His quest for hot stories takes him from the tribal wilds of Yemen to the shell-pocked shores of Lebanon; from the malarial sands of the Sudan to the eerie souks of Saddam Hussein's Iraq, a land so secretive that even street maps and weather reports are banned. As an oasis in the Empty Quarter, a veiled woman offers tea and a mysterious declaration of love. In Cairo, politeness police patrol seedy nightclubs to ensure that belly dancers don't show any belly. And at the Ayatollah's funeral in Tehran a mourner chants, Death to America, then confesses to the author his secret dream--to visit Disneyland. Careening through thirteen Muslim countries and Israel, Horwitz travels light, packing a keen eye, a wicked sense of humor, andchutzpah in almost suicidal measure. This wild and comic tale of Middle East misadventure reveals a fascinating world in which the ancient and the modern collide. As a document of the cultural impasse that brought on the war, this is unsurpassed. --Village Voice High-spirited and entertaining. --The New Yorker A timely and incisive insider's description of the mysterious Arab World . . . Tony Horwitz is an ideal guide for American Reader. --Chicago Tribune.
