Digitopia Studios Ltd, United Kingdom, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Working Dad is the first book for you, the dad who wants to be successful both at work and in fatherhood. This book is for dads by dads, everything in here is related back to you the dad. This is not a book about bringing up children, this is not about how to potty train toddlers, this book is one hundred percent for you, the dad or the dad-to-be. This book gives you the techniques and methods to earn more money, have more time to spend with your child and how to make sure you all enjoy your quality time together. Working Dad gives you techniques to analyse how your current choices around work life balance are contributing to your lifestyles and how to identify those that empower you and those that drain away your energy, time and money. Through these techniques you will be able to dictate the work life balance that you want. Working dad is actually meant for both parents, this book is for anyone who works long hours, maybe weekends and travels away for work. The author shares his own experiences and those of many other parents who travel away for work. The book gives you methods to sustain your relationship with your child/children while you are away for long periods. I'll show you how you can find balance between every facet of your relationship with your child/children and your career without having to sacrifice time and energy on either. In the book you will discover how to create pockets of time and energy to fulfil your dreams and ambitions. Working Dad will give you valuable techniques to get more done in less time that...
