F O R E W O R D VERY FEW MEN even among those who have dedicated their lives to the service of their country possess a name with the luster and shine such as that of DANIEL MARAMBA Y BAUTISTA. Time and history bear eloquent witness to the greatness of the man who is known to his province-mates as The Grand Old Man of Pangasinan, and once, when he came to solve a crisis his country faced, was dubbed by the whole country as its saviour. Despite the fact that very few people remain who belonged to the generation of Daniel Maramba there is no dearth of materials, rich with details, about his life his accomplishments. His public life is well chronicled for it belongs to his country's history. But his personal life, what he was as a man a friend, a husband and a father what Daniel Maramba was, not as a name with a claim to posterity, but as a living, breathing man who even as he trod with the country's great to which company he belonged...
