Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Monique, Essence, and Simone are three sister friends enjoying life to the fullest. They each are faced with challenges in their relationships that required them to be broken by default. Offering support, assistance and guidance to one another helps them to prove that in life, one will realize that there is a role for everyone that we meet. All relationships go through problems, but relationships built to last, find a way to work through it! After six years of playing house, Monique discovers that her fiancée, Casey, has no intention of marrying her. She receives positive DNA test results from Casey and some Portsmouth chick. His ass better be glad that he was currently out to sea at the moment. No wonder he didn't want to marry me. He walking around here going half on babies and shit. I just do not know why he felt the need to hide a whole baby from me? He must have thought that I would never have found out. Essence's motto is that you can't raise a grown ass man! It's too many bitches out here trying to do just that. I mean they are cooking, cleaning, giving them money and dressing them up for the next ho in Hampton Roads. These women are doing everything but getting the dudes last name and claiming them on their taxes. Essence is always down for anything but a commitment until she sets her sights on the good Interim Pastor William Rountree. Will he be able to restore the years of brokenness that she has had to face? Simone is Keyshawn's baby's momma and believes that everyone wants a piece of Keyshawn...
