Paperback. Condition: New. 359 pages. The author has openly stated that the next devastating earthquake andor tsunami is likely to be somewhere in an area of California, but the quandary now faced if his thinking proves to be correct is, does this SWOP conspiracy theory novel (STOP WORLD OVER POPULATION) explain using earthquakes in order to curb over population of our planetThe Culling is his third published work during 2014 and the story is that Western Governments use scientific evidence that within a few years their world faces disaster from uncontrolled population explosion; especially by burgeoning third-world countries probably creating extra desert regions to ruin the industrialised world. No government could openly admit that it intends killing tens of millions of unwanted people worldwide. A number of major international conglomerates collectively called The Affiliation are enlisted to conceal this man-made earthquake programme without any awkward questions being raised. . . It is a survival war! His first published work was published in 1989 and was a fictional political thriller named African Chess (Now revamped, updated and published in March). African Chess was loosely based on his South African upbringing and the then apartheid system in place before Nelson Mandelas release from prison. His next major work published by Marshall Cavendish in 1992 was The Ancestral Trail and split into two halves of 26 issues each, making a total of 52 issues in total, all contained consecutive page and issue numbers. The first half, published throughout 1993, takes place within mythological Ancestral Worlds and describes a boys struggle to restore good to these worlds. After the initial international run which sold over 30 million copies worldwide, the second half of that series was then created, and was published in 1994 and taking place in the totally different Cyber Dimension all about the...
