From a USA Today bestselling author comes Book 3 in the Cowboy Fairytales series He s on a mission for revenge. Prince Pieter of Glorvaird has never met his royal cousins, but he s determined to find a way to hurt them the way he s been hurt. On his mission for revenge, he finds himself traveling a stretch of Texas highway, where he finds a beautiful and stranded young woman. The last thing he needs is a distraction, but McKenna is guileless, nothing like the women who chase his title. He is instantly drawn to her. Hometown girl McKenna Cline has hedged all her bets on becoming rodeo queen. Four events are all that stand between her and the scholarship she needs to start living her dream of attending law school. She accepts Pieter s offer of help and can t help falling for the man who exudes confidence but has given her glimpses of his vulnerable side. When the rodeo princess kisses the toad, will he become the prince he was born to be? The Toad Prince is a contemporary...
