Filles Vertes Publishing, LLC. Paperback. Condition: New. What a wonderful way to be a family: A must read. - Philippe Kahn, Inventor of the camera phone, Time Magazines 2016 list of most influential images of all time From Bordeaux France to San Francisco, California, Sail Cowabunga! A Familys Ten Years at Sea follows a Franco-American couple and their two young sons across the Atlantic Ocean and into a ten-year journey at sea. Through their adventures and misadventures, tragedies, and glories across four continents, the Couvreux family rarely had a dull moment living on the water. Janis chronicles in vivid and lively detail how they fended off a midnight intruder, sailed to the microscopic St. Peter and St. Paul rocks on the equator, explored the jungles of French Guiana and Devils Island, and sailed through Cuba in the turmoil of the late 80s. Their adventure was not without hardship, however, as Janis recounts battling medical emergencies that required sending her husband across the globe for treatment (twice), leaving her to single-handedly orchestrate a Panama Canal passage amid pre-war chaos. While living in the close quarters of their 42-foot sailboat, the Cowabunga, the Couvreux family was able to maintain sanity and a normal daily routine of cooking, schooling, and sleeping at sea, knowing all the while that something unexpected might be waiting just around the next peninsula. A pioneering family adventure built on creativity, grit, ingenuity, and joie de vivre, all bound together by an overwhelming love for all on board and the incredible life Janis and Michel created. -Peter Stein, childrens author of Cars Galore and the Galore Series at Candlewick Press, and Little Reds Riding Hood of Scholastic Inc. s Orchard Books This item ships from multiple locations.
