

The Re-Making of an Addict: Revised Edition (Paperback)

By Cheryl Lynne Thacker

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2014.
 Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. There are things in life that happen to us that we have no control over. Things like which parents we have, where we grew up as a child, who our siblings and other family members are, and how we were raised as children are things we usually have no say about. Yet, these things shape us into the adults we are to become. Good, bad, and/or indifferent, we all are a product of how we were raised. When a child is damaged at a young age, what becomes of that child? How do you recover from abuses that you received at the hands of the ones who were supposed to nurture you? What happens to the child with an absentee father? What happens to the child that looks for love in all the wrong places, and winds up strung out on drugs, with nowhere and no one to turn to? What happens to the child who acquires addictive personalities that they believe is normal ? Can they ever recover? In this book, you will see how an all-loving God rescued a woman...
