By Bradbury Philip J

Philip J Bradbury, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. This book, then, has many uses . * As a coffee table book, * Conversation starter, * Daily meditations, * Personal/spiritual development workshops, * Life Coaching, * Table topics for Toastmasters, * Teaching children (of any age) life lessons, * To remind you of who you are each day - simply great! This work is brilliant. It is darker than the 53 SMILES but it is thought provoking to the reader and causes them to question what is happening for them. Sometimes it gives the answer to the question and sometimes it doesn't. The wording is poetic and beautifully written. This book is best delved into rather than being read from cover to cover and is less about being entertained and more about being challenged to grow personally. The writer shows understanding and maturity. Anna Louise, life coach at The master of A Course In Miracles tells us that we are, Moving to a place beyond words on a journey without distance to a place we never left. He's literally helping us to roll away the stone. In his book...
