Excerpt from The Unfolding of the Little Flower: A Study of the Life and Spiritual Development of the Servant of God, Sister Theresa of the Child Jesus, Professed Religious of the Carmel of Lisieux The life of Sister Theresa of Lisieux, better known now perhaps as the Little Flower of Jesus, has a special interest of its own. These are days of a general disbelief in, or disregard of the super natural, and we, who have to move about the world, can hardly fail if we do not take care, to be more or less infected by the poisonous atmosphere which we have to breathe. Against this peril we have to guard our souls and hearts by every means in our power. To be reminded, as we are so vividly in this life that Our Lord and His Blessed Mother, with the Angels and Saints are ever at hand and that a simple soul devoted to God, can be in constant and easy communication with them, is a great and useful grace. The main difference between the prosaic days in which we live and the Ages of Faith, before the spirit of scientific scepticism had seized upon the world, lies, I think, principally in the fact, that to the people of those days - even to those indeed, who did not live up to their Own ideals - heaven and the super natural world was not even, so to speak, next door; it was an ever present reality to the Christian mind and was as certain and as true, as was the natural World of the senses. There was nothing strained in this mental attitude in days when God reigned in...
