Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. From the PREFACE. IN view of the action of the Mormon authorities who, last Fourth of July, hung the proud flag of our country at half- mast, during that day of national rejoicing, we may say to our National Legislature, You have scotched the snake, not killed it, and it may yet sting you vitally; for these Mormons swear in the Endowment House To obey the laws of the Mormon church, and all they enjoin, in preference to those of the United States. The strength of this people would be materially lessened if our immigration laws were so amended as to cut off this great influx of the ignorant, almost pauper, emigrants of the old world. Let America be henceforth for Americans. The struggle for bread, for life, is becoming too severe here, since the country has become so filled with adult aliens from abroad. We need the room - shut down the gates! ***** An excerpt from the beginning of the first chapter. YOU are very kind, Doctor, to climb, so often, these I tedious flights of stairs, with food and medicine for a friendless man. Death is coming to relieve you. For months I have not been able to work, and my money is gone. Yonder writing-desk was Adze s; that and the enclosed manuscript is now yours; publish it if possible; the world may need the story. I was a Mormon - am now an apostate. I have wandered through country, village and city, till, crushed and penniless, I die to fill a nameless grave. Ah, Adele! thy wrongs are avenged in me Doctor! God! And, with outstretched hand, my first patient, Frederic Hersch, dropped into...
