If you're a spiritually minded reader that loves the works of God in peoples lives, you'll enjoy this. It's a story about two rival gangs in need of being brought together, but not without some opposition of course. With some divine help, the enemy's attempt to destroy a certain individual, named, Sadie, only results in revelations of a certain former gang leader's past, in aiding her rival to end the many years of conflict. In between this, there are a few nail biting moments when one of the main characters become endangered. But, have no fear, when divine intervention comes into play. Things work out for the good (Romans 8:28) of all, in the process of uniting both groups, as the main characters follow through. Afterwards, everyone is shouting the victory! And, if you get through the story, you'll also shout with those who made it! All documented by the Spiritual Coach. There are other tests, trials, victories, and surprises to shout about, as you go along. And, if you can relate to God bringing you out of something, you'll enjoy this story.
