This Energy Self-Defense guide is written for Women only. Maintaining balance in your life and relationships is an ongoing process. With the tools and insights in this guide, you will learn how to protect yourself and your energy in all kinds of situations. We have all gone through a tough situation at work, an argument with a family member or neighbor, or tried to stay calm when our children were acting out, and now you will know what to do when these issues arise. You will learn how to handle energy thieves so that you will never lose your personal energy again or feel drained when being with certain people. By reading this Energy Self-Defense guide for Women, you will find out what is really happening in each situation and why it is happening, so that you can avoid these kinds of situations from occurring again. We know this knowledge may be new knowledge for many people, but we also know that women are holistic thinkers and in general more intuitive. Be open to trying out these Energy Self-Defense tools in your daily life, to see if they will change your life as they have done for so many other people before you. We welcome You to a new and better life, where you and no one else decides on how to use your personal energy.
