Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Mission of the Association of the Military Surgeons of the National Guard of the United States Fortunately every true American citizen regards himself as a guardian of public peace ready to defend his rights and ever ready to protect the country of his birth or adoption. The National Guard of the United States, numbering about citizen soldiers, is a military body of far reaching influence and great power. It is composed of the very best elements of society. It represents almost every profession, trade and business interests. It is composed Of men who, under all circumstances, are loyal to their general and respective State governments. It constitutes an efficient police force scattered over this vast country from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and from the British Possessions to the Gulf of Mexico. The citizen soldiers have often been made the object of ridicule and even contempt, but they have shown their patriotism, courage and military efficiency on many critical occasions. When called upon they have never hesitated for a moment to sacrifice their personal interests...
