The First Epistle to the Corinthians, often referred to as First Corinthians (and written as 1 Corinthians), is one of the Pauline epistles of the New Testament canon of Christian Bibles. The epistle says that Paul the Apostle and Sosthenes our brother wrote it to the church of God which is at Corinth. This epistle contains some well-known phrases, including (depending on the translation) all things to all men (9:22), without love, I am nothing (13:2), through a glass, darkly (13:12), and when I was a child, I spoke as a child, I felt as a child, I thought as a child (13:11).
