Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Expositor, 1875, Vol. 1 The expositor will be, as its name indicates, devoted to the Exposition of the Sacred Scriptures. It will contain Expository Essays and Discourses, Commentaries on the various Books of the Bible, and, occasionally, reviews of such works as are found to be most helpful in the study of the Inspired Word; in short, it will aim at gathering to itself whatever may throw light upon the sacred page. It will not address itself to scholars exclusively or mainly, but to the intelligent Christian public in general: At the same time, it will be written by men who have already distinguished themselves in the field of Biblical criticism and exegesis, and should therefore contain much that even scholars will value.
