And along the way, the authors lay a foundation to help parents become better sports parents, which is advice that most parents need but rarely go looking for. Between them, the authors are a coach, trainer, referee, player and seasoned soccer parent. Their goal is to help parents understand and enjoy the game of youth soccer, a wonderful game for children. This book features diagrams and pictures to aid understanding, and it includes a glossary of soccer terms for easy reference. Smart parents know that a quick read is the easy way to help themselves and their child get the most out of the youth soccer experience. Why not...
