Christian Faith Publishing, Inc., United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Donald J. Walker's gripping prison love story will be an inspirational memoir to anyone who wants to overcome setbacks or difficult challenges in life. Containing true events, his character Don walks you through his twelve years serving life lessons throughout prison institutions only to learn that everything was not what it appeared to be while exposing a world full of racism, corruption, inequality, and the wrongful deaths of many individual, particularly black men--a psychological twister. Don was knocked down but emerged to become a champion freedom fighter and prison reform advocate who painted an unforgettable picture of prisons throughout his own bizarre prison love story. A story that will have Hollywood's screen writers mesmerized at the secret slavery plantations still existing throughout America's mass incarceration and judicial system. This book chronicles, compares, and contrasts the struggles of African-Americans from the past to today's massive prison warehousing bias system. It reads like a fiction, but Don's love tale unravels and gratifies your reading experience since it is packed with solutions for today's socio-economic struggles. Taking you behind the prison walls will evoke feelings of guilt, tears, joy, love, and hate, then compassion and strength to free yourself from the claws of capitalism and chains of slavery!.
