AMERICAN PLANNING AND CIVIC ANNUAL: A RECORD OF RECENT CIVIC ADVANCE IN THE FIELDS OF PLANNING, PARKS, HOUSING, NEIGHBORHOOD IMPROVEMENT AND CONSERVATION OF NATURAL RESOURCES (CLASSIC REPRINT) (PAPERBACK)DOWNLOAD

Forgotten Books, United States, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from American Planning and Civic Annual: A Record of Recent Civic Advance in the Fields of Planning, Parks, Housing, Neighborhood Improvement and Conservation of Natural Resources The citizens of any neighborhood, town or city find that they are bound to be affected by planning decisions made at local, regional, state and national levels. They learn that comprehensive and local planning are not two separate operations, but that they are inter related, and that plans at each level of government must be reconciled with each other and fitted into overall plans, if the best results are to be obtained. Each annual contains much factual information not easily accessible elsewhere; but attention is called to the reorganization of the Federal Executive Agencies which is being put into effect as a result of the task force studies under the Hoover Commission. A number of agencies described in this annual have been changed in name or moved into other departments. No attempt has been made to record the status as we go to press. By next year more changes will be recorded and they will be on a comprehensive scale. The American Planning and Civic Association and the National Conference on State Parks include many public officials in their memberships but they both place emphasis on citizen interest and invite all public-spirited citizens interested in sound land and resource uses to become members, receive the publications and thus be prepared to play an active and intelligent part in the judging of local, regional, state and national policies proposed for the solution of pending issues.
