Break Through is the story of you, the writer, and the world, revolving around the emergence of beauty from pain. This compilation of poems connects the reader to the world through the eyes of an emotionally and spiritually developing girl, both from what she hopes to have to what she has lost. Love, the first section of her story, delves into creation of heartbreak, a sprouting seed that breaks through the soils of a full heart. My Soul is a dismal and simultaneously hopeful section, portraying the inner answers that surface from the breakthrough of the writer s inner acceptance. The World is a more analytical and less personal section, describing observances of the world that affect each and every one of us, encouraging the reader to break away from their most attractive normalities, creating a love for unconventionality and solutions to your sufferings. This book eradicates the idea that societal acclamation is expectation, and promotes a love for greater things than the contemplation of agony. Break Through is for the hurting, the healed, the saved, and the lost. This book is your eyes; look inside through what you learn, and soar.
